

Makom Afterschool Flex

Job Opening:

Online Teachers of Hebrew and Jewish Traditions

Makom Afterschool Flex is an innovative, pluralistic, online Hebrew and Jewish education program for children in JK through Grade 8 in Toronto, Ontario. Students are taught individually or in pairs for between 30 minutes and 2½ hours a week.

We seek experienced, creative, and energetic teachers for Makom Afterschool Flex for the current school term.

Makom Afterschool Flex Teachers will:

- Teach children in JK through grade 8 weekly on weekday afternoons and evenings
- Foster warm, positive, welcoming and inclusive relationships with and between students
- Create and maintain a Hebrew-language environment through Hebrew conversation
- Help students build meaningful connections to Hebrew language and Jewish traditions
- Motivate student learning
- Prepare and teach lessons that follow the Makom Afterschool curriculum guidelines
- Use a variety of play-based, active, and participatory games, activities, and online platforms that support learning of Hebrew language and Jewish traditions
- Attend monthly staff meetings and Makom special events

Job Requirements

- Hebrew and English fluency
- Experience with teaching Hebrew as a second language, lesson planning, pedagogy, experiential or informal Jewish education, early childhood or elementary education
- Background in Jewish studies and traditions
- Strong oral and written communication skills
- Commitment to children's social and emotional development

- Passion for working with children
- Reliable and responsible
- Able to work legally in Canada

Compensation: $50 per teaching hour + statutory holiday and vacation pay

Please submit resumes to admin@makomTO.org

Resumes will be accepted on a rolling basis until positions are filled.

For more information, please visit our website: www.makomfamilies.org/flex